

Call for 2015 SGRF Excellence in Science Award

The SciGenom Research Foundation (SGRF) is a not-for-profit organization that is dedicated to promoting science in India through research and education. It conducts and supports research in multiple areas that are not typically well funded by conventional funding sources. The foundation is also committed to creating forums of scientific exchange and education by organizing high content scientific conferences, seminars and workshops primarily in India and Asia through “SciGenom Conferences”, an educational arm of SGRF. To inspire and promote the next generation of scientists, SGRF further supports talented young students and researchers with fellowships and awards.

With an aim to recognize outstanding scientific contributions to basic and translational research, SGRF has instituted SGRF Excellence in Science Award to honour individual scientists or a team of scientists who have made fundamental and pioneering contributions to basic or translational research through a single discovery or a volume of work. Contributions could also be in the form of mentorship or leadership or life long commitment, which has had a long-lasting impact in research and education around the world and especially in developing countries.

The SGRF Excellence in Science Award will be made to successful recipient identified through nominations and assessment by a committee of peers.

Eligibility

- Eligible candidates are scientists working in academia, industry, or government organisations that are involved in basic or translational life sciences research

- Nominations are invited for eminent scholars from all disciplines of life sciences

Selection

- Candidates for the award will be considered by an international selection Committee encompassing renowned scientists appointed by the executive board and the advisory panel members of the SGRF. The recipient of SGRF award could also nominate other deserving colleagues for this award in the subsequent years. The selection committee will consider all nominations and make a final recommendation to the executive committee of SGRF. All decisions of the executive committee are final. Nominations to be forwarded to SGRF following each specific call.
